St. James's, December 14.

THE following Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and principal Freeholders of the County of Carmarthen, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and principal Freeholders of the County of Carmarthen, assembled to elect a Knight of the Shire for the said County, at the Castle of Carmarthen, on the One and Twentieth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and forty five.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, should deem ourselves unexcusable, did we not, in the present Conjunction, give your Majesty Testimonies of our firmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. We therefore beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty, as well on your Majesty's safe Return to your British Dominions, as on the Success of your Arms in America; as also on your Influence and Negotiations in Favour of the House of Austria.

Permit us, Great Sir, to express our Detestation of the unnatural Rebellion raised in Scotland, and now carried into England, in Favour of a popish Pretender, bigotted to the Church of Rome. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that, at the Hazard of all that is dear to us, we will use our utmost Efforts to support your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and the Church of England as by Law established, against all your Enemies, and their secret and open Abettors, being truly sensible, that, under God, we have no other Security for our happy Constitution, and a Continuance of our Civil Rights and Liberties.

The following Association of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council-Men, Gentlemen, Clergy and Principal Inhabitants of the City of Bath, has been presented to His Majesty by ——— Henly, Esq; their Recorder, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The Association of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council-Men, Gentlemen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the City of Bath.

WE whose Names are hereto subscribed, have experienced the Blessings of our Religious and Civil Liberties; we dread the Miseries of Popery and Arbitrary Power; we are assured of the Continuation of the former under the Government of his present Majesty King George, (whom God long preserve;) we are sensible the latter will be the unavoidable Consequence of the Success of our Rebellious Fellow Subjects, countenanced and armed by foreign Powers, made cruel by the Exercise of uncontrollable Sovereignty, and Enemies to the Freedom of our British Constitution. To preserve therefore that Government so essential to our Happiness, and to prevent that Success so productive of our Misery, we here bind ourselves to his most sacred Majesty, and to each other, by Engagements which we will never depart from nor violate, to defend him in his Person, his Crown and Dignity; to dedicate our Lives to the Service of him whose constant Protection merits our most active and vigorous Obedience, and to employ our Fortunes in Maintenance of that Liberty, secured to us by the Act of Settlement, without which our Lives or Fortunes could afford us no Enjoyment.

Given under our Hands this Thirtieth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord Christ, 1745.

The following Address of the Judge and Jurats of the Court of his Majesty's Island of Alderney, and of the principal Inhabitants of that Island, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Judge and Jurats of the Court of your Majesty's Island of Alderney, and of the principal Inhabitants of that Island.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, most humbly beg Leave, amongst others of your Subjects, to approach your sacred Majesty with Hearts full of the sincerest Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most gracious Government, and to declare our just Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion carried on against your Majesty's Person and Government; a Rebellion that fires with the greatest Indignation your faithful Subjects in this Island, who are Part of the Remains of the ancient Duchy of Normandy, and who have always been distinguished by their inviolable Fidelity to your Majesty and your Royal Predecessors.

Permit us, Great Sir, to offer our most humble Thanks for your Majesty's tender Care in providing us, at this Juncture, with every Thing needful for the Security of this your Island, which, on Account of its Situation, hath always been thought worthy of the Royal Attention: And, on our Part, we beg Leave most humbly to assure your Majesty, that we will, to the utmost, defend this your Island against all Attempts of your Majesty's Enemies.

We are,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful and most dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Justices of the Peace, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Common Council of the Corporation of Bedford, has been presented to his Majesty by Samuel Ongley, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Justices of the Peace, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Common-Council of the ancient Corporation of Bedford, in Council assembled, this twenty-third Day of October 1745.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we heartily join in the general Joy which has been expressed on your Majesty's safe Arrival in your British Dominions.

The surprising Account, which your Majesty's Proclamation gives us of a Foreign Invasion, as it raises in us that just Indignation which we ought to have against the Enemies of our happy Constitution, and fills us with Horror and Detestation, that any of your Majesty's Subjects should so far forget all the Obligations of Nature and Gratitude, as to promote such an Enterprize; so it makes us zealous upon so glorious an Occasion, to shew your Majesty that we are not degenerated from the ancient Courage and Allegiance of true Englishmen.

We do therefore cheerfully offer your Majesty our most ready and vigorous Concurrence, to the very utmost of our Powers, upon so pressing an Emergency, being firmly resolved to employ our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your Majesty's Crown and Dominions; and we doubt not, but all your Majesty's Subjects will unite in so just a Cause; and that your Majesty's heroick Example will inspire them with so generous a Warmth in it, as will render all Foreign Assistance abortive.

The following Address and Association of the Mayor, Corporation, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of all Denominations, of the Liberty of Tiverton in the County of Devon, have been presented to his Majesty by Sir William Yonge, Representative in Parliament for the Borough of Honiton in the said County, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address and Association sociation his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of all Denominations, of the Liberty of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, with Hearts full of loyal Affection for your Majesty's sacred Person, and with a grateful Sense of the many and great Blessings which are secured to us under the present Government, as established in your Royal House, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our utter Abhorrence and Detestation of that unnatural Rebellion lately begun in Scotland, and now raging in the North of England, in Favour of a popish abjur'd Pretender, tending with hasty Steps towards the Subversion of all that can be dear to Britons, our Religious and Civil Liberties. May the Almighty Providence, which is the only true Guardian and Protector of Religious Princes and States, prosper your Majesty's Endeavours in the Support of your own lawful Rights, and the Defence of a Free People. But that we may not only contribute towards this happy Event, by our good Wishes; We whose Names are hereunto subscribed, have voluntarily and readily associated ourselves, and do most heartily unite in the Defence of your Majesty's Person and Government, and in the mutual Support of each other, to the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, against all Domestick Rebels, and Foreign Invaders: And we do jointly and severally oblige ourselves to carry this Association into Execution, in such a Manner, and under such Regulations, as your Majesty shall please to direct. November 21, 1745.

The following Association of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and others of the County of Kent, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Dorset, Custos Rotulorum of the said County: Which Association his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

An Association of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and others of the County of Kent, assembled at Maidstone, November 12, 1745.

WHEREAS a most wicked and unprovoked Rebellion is raised and now carrying on in Scotland, in order to place a popish Pretender on the Throne of these Kingdoms, and to subvert our Religion, Laws and Liberties; We the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and others of the County of Kent, do hereby sincerely and solemnly associate and unite ourselves together, and do promise and engage to assist and support each other, in Defence of his Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, the Protestant Succession to the Crown in his Royal House, and our Religion, Laws and Liberties, against the Pretender, and all his Adherents, Aiders and Abettors, both foreign and domestick.

By the King,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS we have received Intelligence, that Preparations are making by our Enemies to invade this our Kingdom, the Safety and Defence of which require our utmost Care, and wherein, by the Assistance and Blessing of God, we are resolved not to be wanting; and to the Intent that they may not, in Case of their Landing, strengthen themselves by seizing the Horses, Oxen and Cattle of our Subjects, which may be useful to them for Draught or Burthen, or be easily supply'd with Provisions; We have therefore thought fit, and do by this our Royal Proclamation, by the Advice of our Privy Council, strictly charge and command the Warden of the Cinque Ports, his Lieutenants, Deputy or Deputies, and all and every the Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants of our Counties, and all Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Bailiffs, and all and every other Officers and Ministers, Civil and Military, within their respective Counties, Cities, Towns and Divisions, that they cause the Coasts to be carefully watched, and upon the first Approach of the Enemy, immediately to cause all Horses, Oxen and Cattle which may be fit for Draught or Burden, and not actually employ'd in our Service, or in the Defence of the Country, and also (as far as may be practicable) all other Cattle and Provisions to be driven and removed Twenty Miles at least from the Place where the Enemy shall attempt or appear to intend to land, and to secure the same, so as they may not fall into the Hands or Power of any of our Enemies; wherein nevertheless it is our Will and Pleasure, that the respective Owners thereof may suffer as little Damage, Loss, or Inconvenience as may be consistent with the publick Safety. And we do hereby further strictly charge and command all our Subjects to be aiding and assisting ing in the Execution of this our Royal Command.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the Twelfth Day of December, 1745, and in the Nineteenth Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

Leighorn, November 29. Last week Captain Townshend came in here, with several of his Majesty's Ships and Bomb Vessels under his Command, from Bastia, to take in Provisions and Stores, which they were in Want of. We learn'd by them, the Town had greatly suffered by the Fire from the Men of War, and the Number of Shells the Bombs had thrown into it, which had destroy'd many Houses, and had set the Town on Fire in three or four Places; which had such an Effect, that three Days ago we received Advice from thence, by one of the Chiefs of the Corsicans, (who came on Purpose from Bastia, to bring Captain Townshend an Account of it) that the Garrison, which was Genoese, had surrendered to them, which put them in Possession of the Capital. Marquis Mari, who was the Governor, with a Lieutenant Colonel, Major, and about 150 Soldiers for his Escort, found Means to make their Escape the Night before the Place surrendered, which was on the 21st Instant. The rest of the Garrison were made Prisoners of War. M. Mari is gone to Calvi, which, it is said, will be invested, as soon as ever his Majesty's Ships get upon the Coast again; which Captain Townshend is endeavouring to do with the utmost Dispatch. His Majesty's Ships have some of them suffered in their Rigging, without any other Damage, or the Loss of one Man.

Macclesfield, Dec. 11. Late last Night his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland arrived here with two Regiments of Dragoons, having marched from Litchfield hither in two Days, through terrible Roads: The Thousand Foot were within an Hour's March of that Place, and the Duke of Richmond was expected there that Evening with the Remainder of the Cavalry. Upon hearing of the Arrival of the Duke's advanced Guard with the Quarter Masters at this Place, the Rebels quitted Manchester with the utmost Hurry and Confusion, and went on towards Wigan. His Royal Highness sent an Order by Express to the Magistrates of Manchester to enjoin them to seize all Straglers of the Rebel Army, or such as had abetted them, and to keep them in Custody till further Orders; and this Morning his Royal Highness sent on Major Wheatly with a Body of Dragoons. Last Night Orders were sent to Bligh's Battalion to march hither, and to the Liverpool Battalion to retake their former Post at Warrington. The greatest Zeal and Affection were expressed upon the Arrival of the King's Troops in these Parts. Excepting at Manchester, where the Rebels were joined by about 60 Persons, they have met with no Success in their Expedition. Fifteen or sixteen Straglers have been picked up, who are sent to different Jails.

Dover, December 12. By a Vessel arrived here To-day, we have Advice, That an Embarkation of Troops is carrying on with great Expedition at Dunkirk, the Vessels intended to be employed for that Purpose, being most of them already there. It is said there is Furniture put on Board those Ships for 1000 Horses.

Whitehall, December 13.

By Letters of the 11th Instant from Marshal Wade at Wakefield, there is an Account, that it had been resolved in a Council of War held at Ferry-bridge upon the 8th, that the Army should march by the Way of Wakefield and Hallifax into Lancashire, in order to intercept the Return of the Rebels Northwards; but upon their Arrival at the first mention'd Place upon the 10th at Night, Advice having been received that the main Body of the Rebels was then at Manchester, and their advanced Guard gone towards Wigan, on their Way to Preston, by which they had got 3 or 4 Days March of the Army under the Marshal, it was resolved to send a Detachment of Cavalry under the Command of Major General Oglethorp, to pursue them with all possible Expedition, and that the rest of the Army should march towards Newcastle, and both the Army, and the said Detachment of Cavalry, were to march upon the 11th.

Whitehall, December 14.

By Letters which came in this Morning by Express from His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, dated at Macclesfield the 12th Instant, there is Advice, that His Royal Highness had just received Intelligence, that General Oglethorp with his Detachment of Cavalry would be that Day at Wigan; and being at the same Time informed, by several Advices from Lancashire, that the Rebels were continuing their Flight in the utmost Disorder and Confusion, and with such a Pannick, that many of them threw away their Arms upon the Road, his Royal Highness had thereupon resolved to pursue them with all possible Expedition, and would be with his whole Cavalry, as Yesterday, at Wigan; and that as the Rebels had been forced to halt on Thursday day at Preston, his Royal Highness hoped to be able to come up with them in two or three Days March.

There are also Letters that mention, that the People of the Country had for three Days past had some smart Skirmishes with the Rebels, and destroyed several of them.

Whitehall, December 14.

Yesterday was committed to his Majesty's Tower of London, Archibald Stewart, Esq; late Provost of Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, Dec. 9. The French Troops landed some Time ago, brought with them a Train of Artillery of 18 Pounders. They are now busy bringing it from Montrose to Perth by Brechin, but meet with great Difficulties; one of their Cannon requires 20 of that Country Horses to draw it. They give out that they shall cross the Forth, and talk of besieging both Edinburgh and Stirling Castles. The Spirit of the Country to resist the Rebels, and to prevent their crossing the Forth, is very strong; and it is hoped, that before the Rebels can bring all their Cannon to Stirling, a large Body of well-affected People will be brought together to support the King's Troops there.

Plymouth, Dec. 11. This Evening arrived here his Majesty's Ships the Princess Mary, Superb, Canterbury and Sunderland, the two French East India Ships taken near Cape Breton, and about 12 Sail of Merchant-men from Newfoundland, where the Men of War touch'd to convoy home the Trade from thence.

Also this Evening arrived his Majesty's Ship the Hampton Court, who sail'd from hence about six or seven Days ago to cruize in the Channel, and brought in a French Privateer of St. Malo, call'd the Lys, of 32 Guns and 230 Men.

Dover, Dec. 13. Two of our Privateers fell in with a Fleet of French Transports Yesterday on the Coast of France near Boulogne, who were under Convoy of one Man of War, bound to Dunkirk to take Troops on Board: The Privateers had the good Luck to take three of the said Transports, two of which are just come into this Peer, and the Third, with about 14 Prisoners, was last Night sent into the Downs to Admiral Vernon. As the Weather was very foggy, they could not be certain as to the Number of the Transports, but could count about 10 or 12.

Deal, Dec. 13. This Morning arrived here two Dover Privateers, who have brought in with them two French Transports; there were eight Sail of them, from Boulogne, bound to

Dunkirk, under Convoy of a French Man of War of 22 Guns, and they have Cloaths and Bedding on board for Soldiers.

Whereas his Majesty has been pleased to direct that Alarm-Posts should be appointed, and proper Signals be settled for giving Notice to the several Guards which are to be in Readiness to march upon the first Notice of any Tumult or Insurrection within the Cities of London or Westminster; and that the said Signal should be by Seven Cannons, one to be fired every Half Minute at the Tower, to be answer'd by the same Signal from St. James's Park, and vice versa: It is therefore order'd by the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, and the rest of his Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, that every Officer and Soldier in each of the Six Regiments of the City Militia, without waiting for Beat of Drum, or any other Notice, do immediately, on hearing the said Signals, repair with their Arms and the usual Quantity of Powder and Ball, to the Places hereunder mentioned, for the Rendezvous of the said Regiments respectively, that is to say:

The Red Regiment on Tower Hill.

The Green Regiment in Guildhall Yard.

The Yellow Regiment at St. Paul's Church Yard.

The White Regiment at the Royal Exchange.

The Blue Regiment in Old Fish Street. And

The Orange Regiment in West Smithfield.

And all Persons neglecting to appear at above directed, will be punished as Deserters. Dated at Guildhall, the 14th of December 1745.

Signed by Order of the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, and the rest of his Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, Edward Grose, Clerk.

December 13, 1745.

The Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give Notice to the several Subscribers to the Contract for Eighteen Hundred Thousand Pounds, dated the 19th of September last, and to their several and respective Executors, Administrators and Assigns, That they pay or cause to be paid to the said Governor and Company, or to any of their Cashiers for their Use, at their publick Office in Threadneedle Street, Twenty Pounds per Centum, (or one fifth Part) of the Sum by them respectively subscribed, on or before Tuesday the 24th Instant, for which Bank Notes will be delivered, with Interest after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, payable in Twelve Months from the said 24th Instant. And the several Subscribers to the said Contract, or their Assigns, have Liberty to pay the remaining Seventy Pounds per Centum, or any Part thereof not less than Twenty Pounds per Centum, on or before the said 24th Instant, for which Bank Notes will likewise be delivered, with Interest for the same after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, payable in Twelve Months from the said 24th Instant.

Robert Lewin, Secretary.

December 10, 1745.

The Trustees appointed to put in Execution the Acts for repairing the Roads in the Parishes of Kensington, Chelsea, &c. do hereby give Notice, that Money will be reserved in the Hands of Edward Eyre, of Chelsea, Esq; their Treasurer, for paying off the two following Bills of Credit on the 13th of June next, with all Interest for the same to that Time: And all Persons, into whose Hands the said Bills are or may come, are desired to take Notice, that from and after the said 13th of June, all Interest for the said two Bills will absolutely cease. The said two Bills are N^o 17 in the Name of Elizabeth Hutton; N^o 18 of John Milner, Esq; for 100 l. each.

J. Bowack, Secretary.

By Order of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, Notice is hereby given, that the Clergy are to pay their Tenths that will become due at Christmas next, to Edward Barker, Esq; at his Office over-against the Garden-Gate in the Middle Temple, London, where daily Attendance will be given for Receipt of the same, from the 7th of January next, to the last Day of April following, Sundays and Holidays excepted.

Notice is hereby given to the Commission, Warrant Officers, and Master's Mates, who were on board his Majesty's Ship the Kinsale, at taking the French Prizes St. Philip, Concordia, La Paix, Venus and James, and Alexander, that their respective Shares of the first Payment of the said Prizes will be made on Thursday the 19th of this instant December, at the House of John Reynolds, opposite to the Pay Office in Broad-street; and the Shares of such as shall not then be demanded, will be paid at the same Place the second Thursday in every Month for three Years. The Petty Officers and Foremast-men will be paid as soon as the certified Lists can be obtained; of which Notice will be given in the Gazette.

Royal Exchange Assurance Office, Dec. 11, 1745.

The Court of Directors of the Royal Exchange Assurance Company do hereby give Notice, That their Transfer Books will be shut from Thursday the 19th of this instant December, to Tuesday the 21st of January next: And that the annual General Court of the said Company, appointed by their Charter, will be held at their Office on the Royal Exchange, on Tuesday the 31st of December instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon: And that a Dividend will be considered of at the said Court.

WHEREAS a terrible Fire happen'd in my House in Nicholas-Lane, which suddenly consumed the same, with the Effects therein, with all my Books and Papers of Accounts:

This is therefore to desire all Persons, who have any Concerns with me, to be so kind as to furnish me with their Accounts, in order to settle with them, and render Justice to every one.

I also request the Favour of such as have lately paid any Bank Notes to me or my Clerks, to give me the best Account they can of the Numbers, Dates, and Sums, and to whom such Notes were payable.

And I take this Opportunity to return my hearty Thanks to those Gentlemen, who have honour'd me with their Commands, and to beg Leave to offer them and all others my future Services, and to assure them, that I will diligently and faithfully discharge the Trust they may repose in their
